Beit Yeshua is privileged to welcome David Dolan back to Gateshead. He is presently on tour with Christian Friends of Israel.

David is a Jerusalem-based author and journalist. Born and raised in the USA, he has lived in Israel since 1980.

Formerly working for CBN-TV, David became a regular reporter for the CBS Radio Network in 1998 - soon after the first Palestinian uprising.

He covered the 1991 Gulf War along with the second intifada in 2000.

As a popular international speaker he has lectured many times world wide at Christian conferences, secular universities as well as Jewish synagogues and civic groups.

As an author his books have been re-printed a number of times and two have been translated into many languages.

We also welcome other ministries in our afternoon options.

There will be a wide range of resources available -including of course David's books.

We look forward to seeing you.
